The Students of

Athens College

Athens, Alabama

Dedication

Dr. Waights G. Henry, a lover of youth and possessor of a God-given aptitude for teaching, has demonstrated to the world and to Athens College in particular by his life and deeds the fact that he possesses all the requirements of a true Christian gentleman.

Dr. Henry is an inspiration to both the faculty and the students of Athens College.

To you, Dr. Henry, this edition of The Columns is dedicated.

WAIGHTS G. HENRY, Ph. D., LL. D.

FROM THE EDITOR:

When I began my work as editor of the Columns last November, I knew that it would be a big job, but that was not the half of it--this little book required more work than one would ever believe. However, what I have learned about people and the experience I have gained compensate in full for the work and worries so frequently encountered.

Words cannot express my thanks to those members of The Columns Staff, the faculty, and the student body who have worked so faithfully and cooperatively. To the faculty sponsor, Dr. Fairman, an apology for the almost continual disturbance--he has been ever helpful. Thank you, advertisers, for your assistance in helping to make our annual a success.

It has been a privilege and a pleasure as well as an honor to have been entrusted with such a responsibility. Again, thanks to everyone who has contributed in any way toward making The Columns of 1952 a reality.

Mack M. Coleman

FROM THE STAFF:

The staff takes pride in presenting this publication to you with the hope that it will preserve at least a portion of the spirit of our college days. To our college friends we hope that The Columns will give you a better understanding of what is being done at Athens College. Much time and thought have been given to the assimilation of this edition--we hope you like it.

Alma Mater

On Alabama's northern border,
Reared against the sky,

Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years roll by.

Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Conquer and prevail;

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Athens College, Hail!

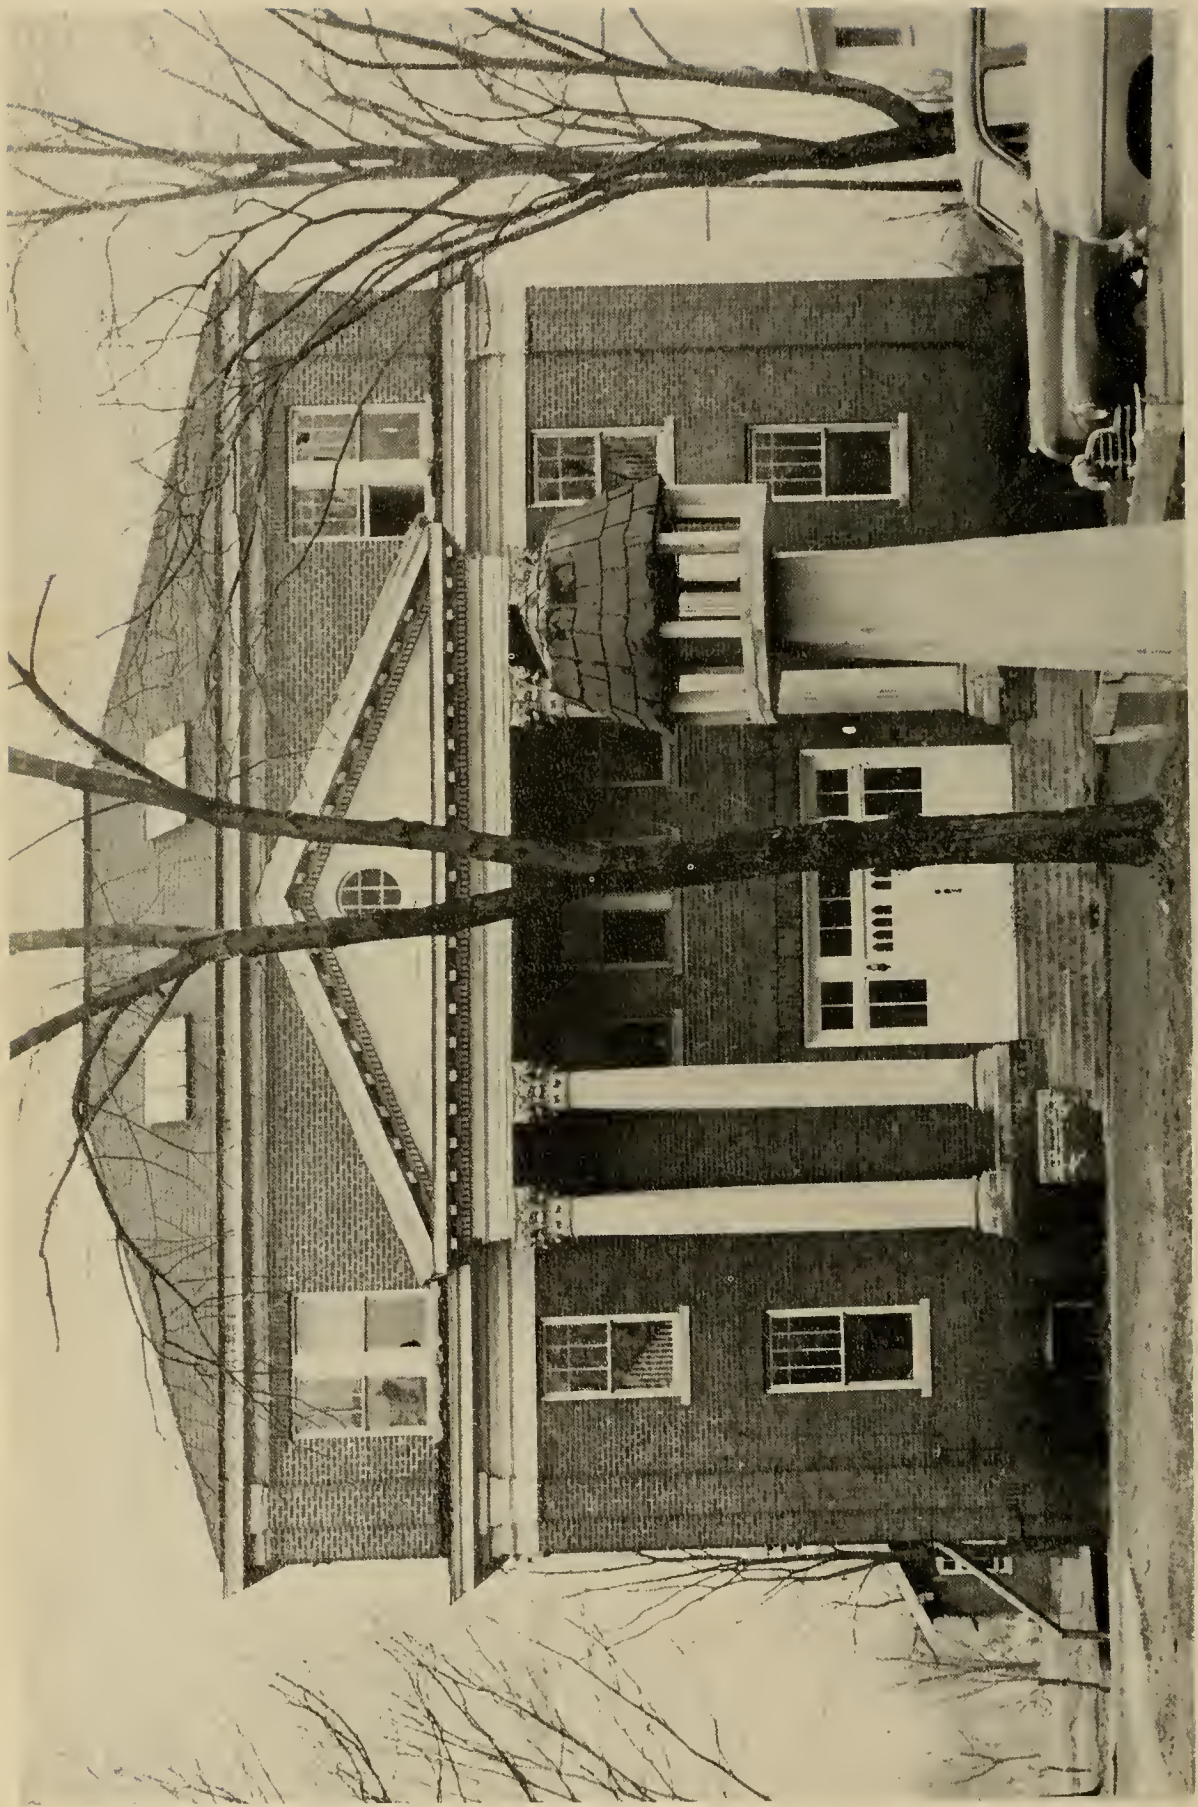

Through the years we've learned to love her,
And we sing her praise;

For the pleasure she has shawn us,
Through our college days.

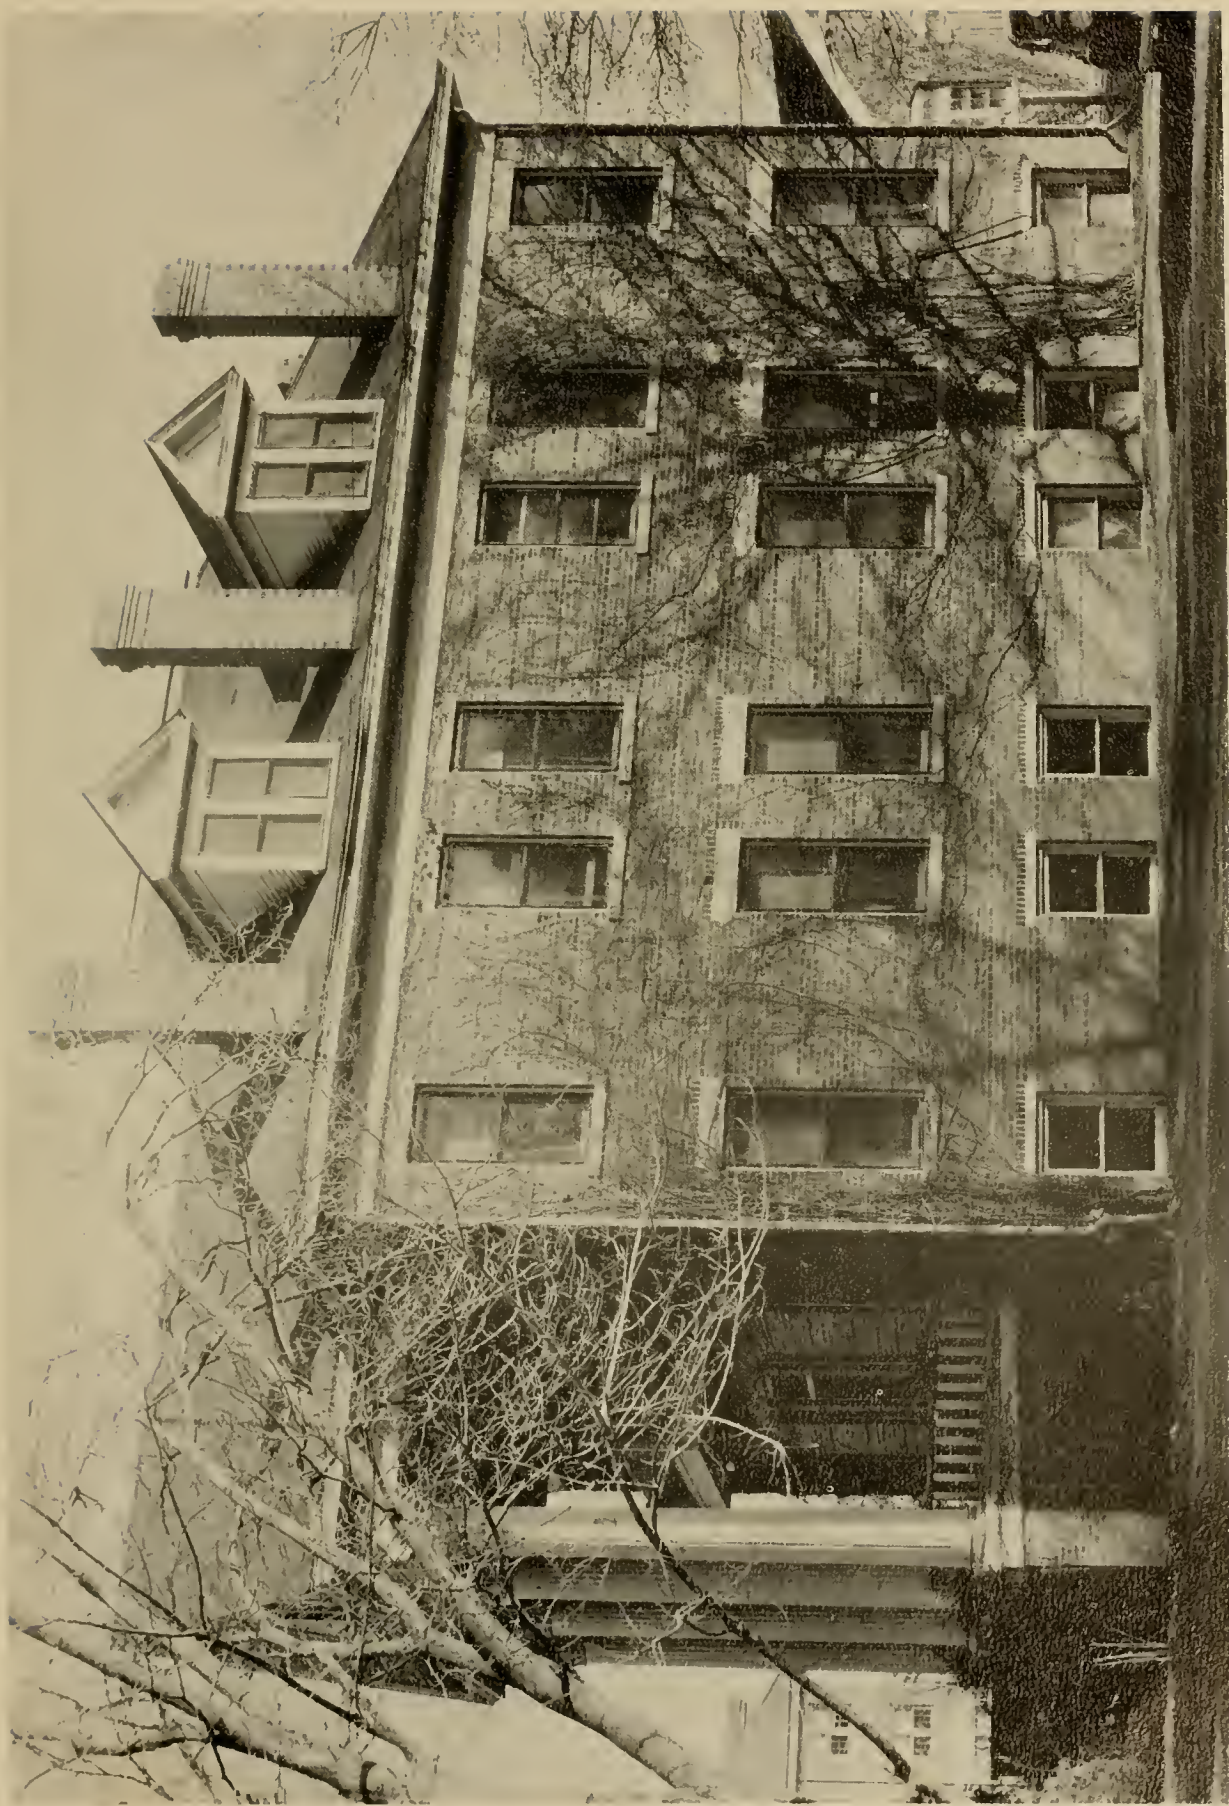

Onward ever, be our watchword;
May we never fail;

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Athens College, Hail!

whom God, in His infinite wisdom, saw fit to remove from our midst early in the summer vacation of 1951. He was an excellent teacher, a loyal friend of Athens College, and a person who gave of his best to further the welfare of the students.

Halloween

An abstract geometric design featuring a large, stylized letter 'M' in a dark, textured color. The 'M' is composed of several rectangular blocks. The background is a light beige color with a grid pattern of thin black lines. The grid is composed of squares of varying sizes, creating a sense of depth and perspective. The overall composition is modern and minimalist.
